

You are invited to a workshop based on the new book
by Corinne McLaughlin and Gordon Davidson:

Exploring the New World Within and Around You

October 2, 10am to 5pm, Sirius Community, Shutesbury, MA

Would you like to upgrade your inner, spiritual life and become more visionary so you can navigate your way through the present crises? Come be inspired by astounding evidence of a New World of practical visionaries, with innovative solutions to our toughest problems, providing genuine hope for our future.

- Discover the 8 keys to the New World and find your part
- Understand the deeper causes behind our personal and collective crises today and what you can do about it
- Explore how the Age of Synthesis is impacting your life
- Explore spiritual approaches to the financial crisis, why spiritual people have money problems, and how to transform them
- Find out how to overcome short circuits in your personal energy and balance vision with practicality through your chakras
- Learn practical exercises, meditations and techniques to keep your eyes on the horizon, your feet on the ground, and your heart on fire for a better world!

Corinne McLaughlin and Gordon Davidson are co-authors of The Practical Visionary, Spiritual Politics (Foreword by the Dalai Lama), and Builders of the Dawn. They are co-founders of The Center for Visionary Leadership, co-founders of Sirius and Fellows of the Findhorn Foundation. Corinne worked for President Clinton's Council on Sustainable Development and Gordon was Director of the Social Investment Forum.

Registration: $85 (accommodations and meals are extra). Free registration for Sirius members. Contact Sirius Community: info@siriuscommunity.org; (413) 259-1251; www.siriuscommunity.org. For info on the seminar content, contact Corinne at 415-472-2540; corinnemc@visionarylead.org. For more information on Corinne and Gordon's new book, with excerpts and video clips, go to www.thepracticalvisionary.org.